Missoula Famous: First, thank you for taking the time to talk with me.

Helena H. Montana: Of course, darling. I'm a big fan.

MF: Likewise. So, how have you been doing through the pandemic?

HHM: I can't complain. I still get to perform, but now when I'm done instead of fighting my way through a bar I can just turn off my webcam and take a shower. I auditioned for season 4 of The Boulet Brothers' Dragula and am working on teaching some online drag 101 workshops.

MF: How did you get start in drag?

HHM: The same way everyone else does: stealing and wearing my mom's clothing. I didn't start doing it in front of people until college. I met my good friend (drag king) Johnny Spritzer in a history class, and they encouraged me to take my excellence onto the stage.

MF: What was your first performance like?

HHM: I won a glass dildo for lip-syncing to the Monster Mash. Then I told the host she looked like she was dressed like she was Cher on her way to Sonny Bono's funeral. Huge success all around.

MF: That leads into my next question. Your drag has been described as "weird," "unhinged," and "disturbing."

HHM: (Laughs) Who said that?

MF: Mostly your friends.

FAST FACTS
FIRST VENUE: Crystal THEATER
FAV VENUE: SILVER THEATER (RIP)
"I ALWAYS Brought the Roof Down"
Best Breakfast: "Whatever Burrito in missoula?"
SIGN: ARIES SUN TAURUS RISING PISCES MOON baybaay

HHM: That checks out. When I first started, I wanted to be liked and accepted by the larger community. I spend a lot of time emulating performers I wanted to like me. Eventually, I realized that we all just get one chance at life, so why spend my time not being my authentic self? And it turns out my authentic self is weird, unhinged, and...
What was that last one?

MF: Disturbing.

HHM: Exactly. So disturbing. Look out, bitches.

MF: What tips do you have for people who want to get started in drag?

HHM: You don't have to spend a lot of money. You can get good starting outfits at Ross Crossdress for Less, basic makeup kits are super cheap, and there's a bunch of YouTube tutorials. Or you can take my drag 101 workshops assuming I can figure out the internet.

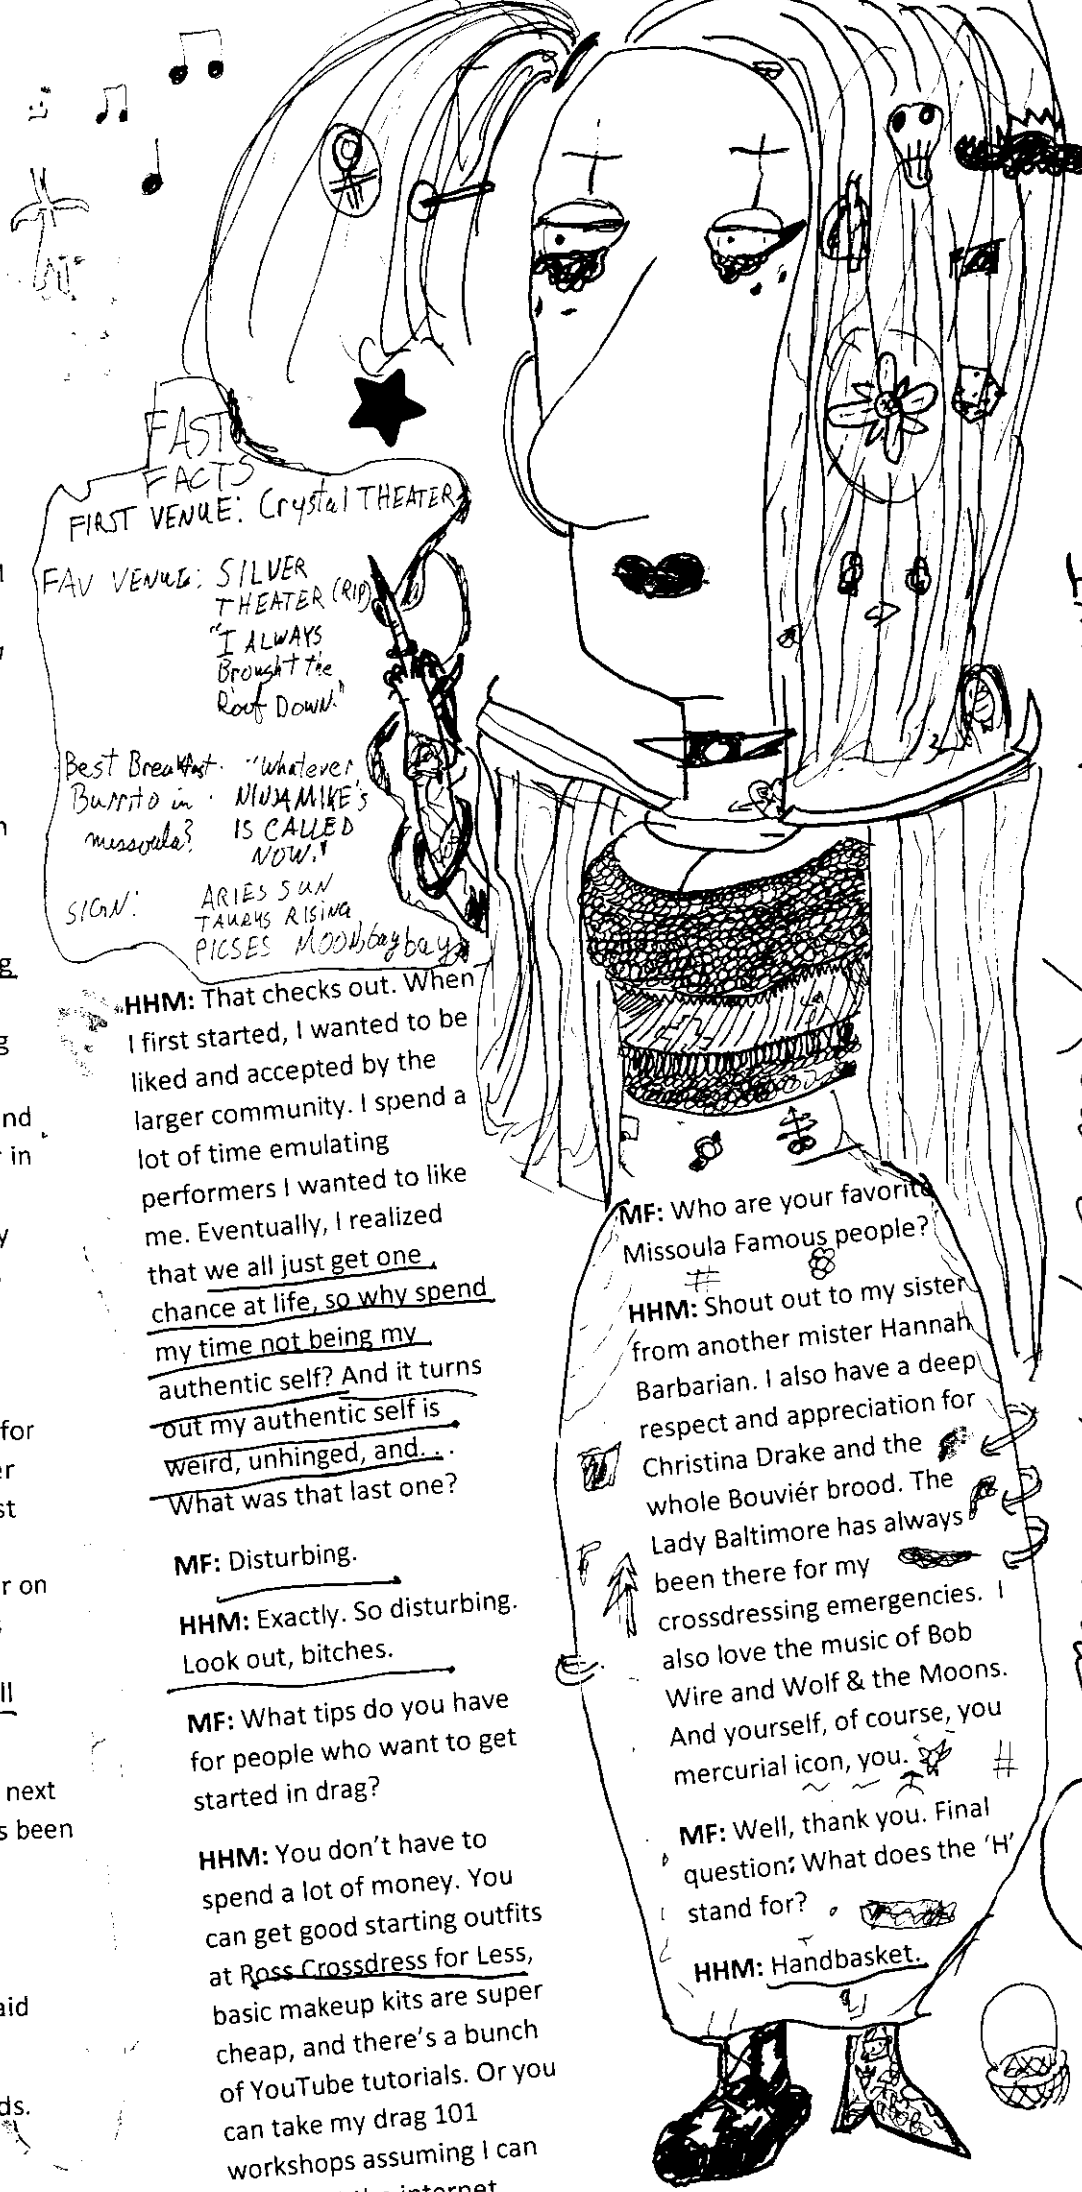

MF: Who are your favorite Missoula Famous people?
HHM: Shout out to my sister from another mister Hannah Barbarian. I also have a deep respect and appreciation for Christina Drake and the whole Bouviér brood. The Lady Baltimore has always been there for my crossdressing emergencies. I also love the music of Bob Wire and Wolf & the Moons. And yourself, of course, you mercurial icon, you.
MF: Well, thank you. Final question: What does the 'H' stand for?
HHM: Handbasket.
